PACKERS UPSET CARDINALS 20-0
GAME RECAP (GREEN BAY PRESS-GAZETTE)

Quarterback Delay. Red Dunn runs to daylight after faking a pitchout to Eddie Kotal, the Lawrence College (Wis.) grad who always played without a helmet. Blocking for Dunn are Jug Earp, Whitey Woodin, Roger Ashmore, and Tom Nash. It was a 1928 game against the Chicago Cardinals. The Packers shut down the Cards, 20-0. That year the Packers gained national attention when they invaded the Polo Grounds and beat the New York Giants. Lefebvre-Stiller photo.

(GREEN BAY) - A band of football players from the South side of Chicago came up to Green Bay Sunday and saw what the Packers had to offer. They saw plenty and departed, much wiser and the loser. The final score was Green Bay 20 to the Cardinal 0. It was a great Packer football team that turned back the Windy City invaders at the City stadium before some 4,200 fans, a team that was out to win its first National league game, and did. The forward line charged better than it had at any time this year, fighting its way against the Chicago foes and performing almost miraculously feats in defensive and offensive play.

PERRY IS STAR

The backfield men likewise performed brilliantly, plowing and pounding through the Cardinal line for long gains and completing forward passes that resulted in scores. They made a total of eight first downs to the Cardinals' three during the game and completed four of six forward passes tried. On the defensive, the backfielders were equally effective backing up the line in good order and breaking up Cardinal passes. The Cardinals were able to complete but three of eleven forward passes during the game. Four of the Chicago heaves were intercepted by Bay men to give the Packers possession of the ball. Among the players on the charging line, Perry probably was the greatest individual star. On the defensive, he was in practically every play, frequently charging in to break up Cardinal plays and down ball carriers for losses. His offensive work was equally brilliant.

KOTAL GOES GREAT

He wasn't the only player who did good work on the line however, as all the men came in for their share of glory - if it can be called that. Eddie Kotal also was much in evidence again. The flashy Bay backfielder who plays without a headgear galloped through the Cardinal line for long gains on frequent occasions and picked several forward passes out of the air that went a long way toward the Packer victory. Eddie had a lot of assistance however, from the rest of his teammates and fellow ball carriers. Lewellen, O'Boyle and Dunn were consistent ground gainers, to say nothing about Marks who on one occasion dodged and squirmed through the Chicago team after he had fumbled the ball for a gain of more than 20 yards.

THREE CARD STARS

The Cardinals had three men who showed up great in Jones, Erickson and McDonnell. Jones showed a lot of power in driving through holes opened by his linemen occasionally. Erickson made a great return of an intercepted forward pass going through the whole Packer team before he was caught from behind by Lewellen on the twenty yard line. McDonnell likewise did some fine plunging and carried the ball 45 yards on one return of a punt. The first Packer touchdown came soon after the start of the second quarter. The Packers had the ball on the 40 yard line when the period started and O'Boyle slashed over center for 6 yards on the first play. On the next play, Eddie Kotal took the ball on a crossback through left tackle, twisting and squirming his way behind good interference for more than 35 yards and a touchdown. It was one of the greatest runs ever seen on the local gridiron. O'Boyle missed a try for extra point with a drop kick. After the first touchdown, the Packers had possession of the ball most of the time until they put it over for the second marker. Lewellen, O'Boyle and Dunn alternated with Kotal in carrying the ball for gains and just before the period ended a pass, Dunn to Kotal, put the ball on the two-foot line.

SCORE IN FINAL PERIOD

The third quarter saw neither team have much of an advantage although the Packers had the better of the argument because of better placed punts by Lewellen. The third and final touchdown came soon after the last period began. Murphy, punting from behind his goal line as the period started, got off a bad kick and Dunn returned it to the Cardinal 22 yard line. A pass from Lewellen to Kotal then made 9 yards and Eddie made it first down with a center plunge. Another line plunge by O'Boyle made two more yards and then Eddie Kotal dropped back on a fake end run and hurled a fine pass to Lewellen who was run out of bounds on the one-yard line. Lewellen went over left guard for a touchdown on the first play after the pass and O'Boyle kicked goal.

SIDELINES

OCT 15 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Near the end of the third quarter, Perry broke through to catch McDonnell before he could get started on an attempted plunge for a seven yard loss. The Cardinals had the ball on their own ten-yard line at the time, and Perry almost forced the Cardinal man behind his own goal...Dr. W.W. Kelly got a big hand (and some giggles) from the crowd when he did a "marathon" across the field after O'Boyle had taken the count. However, it was a short count and, by the time, the "doctah" arrived at the spot of injury, O'Boyle was getting up on his feet. So the team doctor galloped back to the bench, and when he arrived very much out of breath, he said to Capt. Lambeau: "Curley, why the dickens can't those players get hurt closer to home, it is a long way across the field."...Minick and Jones did a lot of good work at guard positions and consistently held the Chicago squad to no gains through the center of the line. Earpe also performed well at center and at tackle, and was one of the mainstays of the Bay line...Capt. "Curley" Lambeau came into the game near the close of the encounter and did some good blocking and tackling. On one play, after Lewellen got off his best kick of the day, booting the ball from his own 15-yard line to the Cardinal 10-yard line, Curley stopped Fitzgibbon who received the punt before he had a chance to advance the ball at all...Lavvie Dilweg was injured again when he made a flying tackle of a Cardinal player, and was forced out of the game. His injuries are not regarded as serious, however, and he is expected to be back in the game next week...Bowdoin at a guard position for the Packers also broke up several Cardinal plays, as did Nash, Ashmore and Darling. Nash did some good work at going down the field and stopping Cardinal receivers of punts.

PACKERS PREPARE FOR TRIP SUNDAY TO BEARS FIELD

OCT 16 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - That famous Packer punch, which appeared to be lacking in early league games, appears to have been restored in its old time effectiveness, if the showing Sunday against the Cardinals is any criterion. As a result of the victory hopes were high here today, as the Packers resumed their training, that the Bays would humble another Chicago rival - the Bears - on their invasion of the Windy City next Sunday. Rain made practice difficult this morning, but the Packers went through light drills and signal practice in preparation for the game with their traditional rivals. The Packers came out of the Cardinal game in good shape, and none of the men received injuries that will keep them out of the Bear game. Lavvie Dilweg who had to be taken from the field when he was hurt Sunday, appears in good shape again, and will be ready to go. Reservations have been made for a thousand or more fans on special trains that will be run to Wrigley field next Sunday. The American Legion band will also make the trip, as approximately $200 was donated by fans last Sunday to send it to Chicago.

1,000 FANS GOING TO CHICAGO

OCT 17 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - "Beat the Bears". That will be the cry of some thousand of more Green Bay fans who plan to be among the rooters at Wrigley field at Chicago next Sunday when the Packers resume their feud with their traditional rivals from the north side of the Windy City. Special trains and automobiles will be the modes of travel for the Green Bay fans on the trip to Chicago. Two excursion trains will leave over the Northwestern road, one at midnight, and the other early Sunday...SPECIAL PACKER STANDS: A section of box seats for the game will be on sale at the Congress as soon as they are received from the Bear management, and besides these a special section of the grandstand at Wrigley field will be set aside for the Packer rooters and the Lumberjack band. Green Bay rooters' badges are to be distributed free to those making the trip this week. The silk ribbon was donated by Cecil Baum of Baum's department store, while the Landsmann Printing company got up the job. The color of the ribbons are the same as the Packers' color, gold and blue. The Packers will leave here at 2:40 Saturday afternoon and reach Chicago at 9:10 p.m. They will stay at the Parkway hotel near Lincoln park. As usual they will dress for the game at the hotel and go to the field by motor bus...DURFEE TO REFEREE: Jim Durfee, Columbus, will referee the game and "Horse" Edwards of South Bend will umpire. George Downer of Milwaukee will act as head linesman. The game will start at 2:15 p.m., at the Wrigley field, which is located at Sheffield, Addison and Clark streets in Chicago. Capt. Lambeau plans on taking his whole team with him to Chicago and is sending them through tough workouts this week in preparation for the encounter. The team is in good shape now and all of the injured men are recovering in good order. It still is doubtful if Cahoon or Lollar will be quite well along the road to recovery from their injuries to get in the game, however.

EXPECT MANY FANS TO RIDE "PACKER SPECIAL"

OCT 17 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Several hundred Packer football fans are expected to take advantage of the special excursion which is being operated by the Chicago and Northwestern next Sunday to swell the attendance at the Packer-Bear game in Cubs' park, Chicago. For a special roundtrip of $1, the fans have their choice of two trains going and coming. The football special proper leaves here at 6:30 Sunday morning, arriving in Chicago at 12:30 noon, and leaves at 7 p.m.. arriving here at 1 a.m., Monday. For those who wish to spend more time in Chicago, the excursion tickets also will be honored on to the train leaving here at 12:00 midnight Saturday, arriving in Chicago at 7:10 Sunday morning, and on the train leaving Chicago at 8 p.m., and arriving here at 3:55 a.m. Enough coaches will be carried to accommodate 500 persons, according to T.A. Carney, division freight and passenger agent. The Bear-Packer game is always regarded as one of the most important on the season's schedule, and hundreds of fans annually make the trip to Chicago to witness it.

PASS DEFENSE STRESSES BY BEARS IN DAILY PRACTICE

OCT 18 (Chicago) - Every man on the Bear team is in condition again and ready to take the field against the Packers from Green Bay when they clash with the Chicago squad at the Cubs park here Sunday. Paddy Driscoll and Trafton, who were injured in the Packer game at Green Bay, are back in uniform and working out every day with the team. Practice on formations on the defense against the Packer passing attack is occupying most of the time of the Bears; as it was this mode of football that gave the Green Bay team a tie with the Chicago squad in the first game this year. The Bear management plans to use practically the same lineup as started at the norther city...Box seat tickets for the Packer-Bear game at Chicago were received here today and are on sale at the Congress and at the Press-Gazette office. There are only a limited number of these tickets, but a special section has been reserved in the grandstand for Packer rooters and they will be available when fans apply for them at the field. A record number of local people are expected to witness the game as both the Northwestern and Milwaukee roads are running excursions to Chicago Sunday. A special low mass will be said at St.

Packers Appear Impressive In Practice for Bear Game

PACKERS APPEAR IMPRESSIVE IN PRACTICE FOR BEAR GAME

OCT 19 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - After working like demons all this week in practice sessions preparing for the game at Chicago Sunday against the Bears, the Packers players today showed results of the training by running through plays and charging better than they have at any time this year. Execution of plays was nearly perfect, the forward pass formations particularly functioning smoothly. End runs and line smashing plays with all members of the backfield carrying the ball also went off in fine shape. Defense against the expected Bear line smashing attack has also been stressed in the sessions and the men are expected to prove effective in blocking this mode of attack by the Chicagoans...ALL-IMPORTANT GAME: If the Packers can defeat the Bears Sunday, they still will have an excellent chance to finish among the leaders in the National league standings, as this will leave them all square with the Bears which seems the strongest club in the league, having defeated the champion New York Giants last Sunday, a team hitherto undefeated. The Bears and Packers will play a third regular league game Dec. 9 at Chicago, and, if the Packers win Sunday, assuming a fair distribution of the breaks between now and then, the December contest may decide the leadership of the league. The Bays will be in great shape Sunday and Capt. Lambeau has his men keyed for the contest. It isn't very hard to "key" the men for the Bear game, however, as the rivalry that has existed between these two teams for several years does that task nicely. Indications point to one of the largest crowd in the history of the game at Chicago when the two teams meet. Reports from Chicago state that the advance ticket sale has been the largest ever experienced and with 1,000 or more Green Bay fans going down to the game, a record number probably will be on hand...SPECIAL TRAINS TO GAME: Special excursion rates are available on the Milwaukee and Northwestern roads to Chicago. The Northwestern will have trains leaving here at 12:05 and at 6:30 a.m. Sunday morning. The St. Paul will have trains leaving here at 1:15 Sunday morning and at 7:00 a.m. Round trip fare is $4.00 on both roads. Badges for Green Bay rooters are now available at the Congress billiard hall and The Press-Gazette. The badges also will be given out at the St. Paul and Northwestern railroad stations. When fans buy tickets over either of the railroads, they are requested to ask for a badge. About 600 badges have been printed. "Wear Your Badge So We Will Know You" is the slogan that has been suggested by L.C. Snavely, a faithful Packer follower. Baum's Department Store furnished the ribbons for the badgers and the Landsmann Printing company printed them.

PRO GRID NOTES

OCT 19 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - The Detroit Wolverines got off to a flying start in the National league race by smearing the New York Yankees, 35 to 12. Benny Friedman had one of his "on" days and he was shooting the oval at bullet like speed...The New York Giants, 1927 champions, got a 13 to 0 lacing at the hands of the Chicago Bears. The Bruins were all keyed up for Tim Mara's crew and they more than got even for their Polo grounds lacing of last season...The Dayton Triangles found the Providence Steamrollers altogether too much for them and they headed back to the Ohio community on the short end, 26 to 0. Fumbles were costly to Manager Redell's aggregation...The biggest upset of the weekend was the 13 to 0 defeat of the Frankford Yellowjackets by the New York Yankees last Saturday. The Hornets had a clean slate chalked up until Pyle & Co. unexpectedly spilled them...A number of the clubs are booking non-league opponents. Pottsville has two billed for this weekend. Saturday, the Maroons are billed to meet the Dubois, Pa., club while on Sunday they tangle with Canton...The Yellowjackets have filled in this Saturday's date with the Dayton Triangles. Several weeks ago, the Hornets only nosed out a 6 to 0 win. On Oct. 21., Coach Weir will take his eleven to Stapleton, N.Y. for a contest...The gridiron stock of the New York Yankees climbed a notch or two with the announcement that Ray Flaherty came to terms with the management. The "brick-top" is one of the best wingmen in the Carr circuit...Rosey Rosatti and Paul Schuette have been added to the ranks of the New York Giants. Rosatti played with the Green Bay Packers for three years while Schuette had two years of varsity football at Wisconsin...Benny Friedman and his Detroit Wolverines will meet the New York Giants Sunday. This is a bumper attraction and the Motor City management is expecting a sellout crowd...The Providence Steamrollers are to play a return engagement with the Yankees in New York. Several weeks ago, the Rhode Islanders won by a decisive score but this time out it may be a different sort of a grid story...Weiderquist, the giant Chicago Cardinal tackle, is proving to be a good running mate for the veteran Duke Slater. These two husky forwards and Claypool just about carry the front wall work for Chris O'Brien's hirelings...Fait Elkins is the newest addition to the Frankford Yellowjackets. This Olympic athlete starred on the gridiron while at the Indian school and the Jackets figure he is just the man to round out their backfield...Paddy Driscoll is back again lugging the ball for the Bears. He was on the sidelines for three weeks with some cracked ribs but donned the cleats for the Giants game...Feather, a hard hitting backfielder, is co-starring with Benny Friedman on the Detroit eleven. In the game with the New York Yanks, he got away for several brilliant advances which resulted in a pair of touchdowns...Mule Wilson is performing nicely for the New York Giants. The six-foot carrier from Texas is a hard man to stop on tackle smashes and there isn't a better back in the league against a forward pass attack...Wildcat Wilson is beginning to flash brilliantly for Providence. He is showing the class that made him an ace in the American league several years ago. Wilson is a triple threat artist of the front row variety.

PACKERS AND BEARS CLASH SUNDAY

OCT 20 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - A shrill whistle, the thud of a cleated show meeting a football squarely, the oval sailing through the air and into the arms of a waiting player - and another contest will be underway at Wrigley field, Chicago, tomorrow with the Bears and Packers fighting gamely to settle the question of one or the others supremacy. There aren't many college victories that are contested as bitterly as a Bear-Packer game. These two teams have been rivals for many years and there hasn't been a game played that both squads didn't fight until the final whistle. And tomorrow's game will be no exception. There is a little matter of a 12 to 12 ties played between the teams in Green Bay a few weeks ago, and the memory of that contest is still fresh in the minds of players on both teams, as well as thousands of fans...THREE GAME TIED: Then there is the matter of the seven defeats suffered by the Packers from the Bears in six years of competition that also must be avenged. Only twice in 1921 has the Bay team been able to defeat its Chicago rivals. Three times they fought to a tie. It will not be an easy task for the Bays to turn back their Chicago opponents for the Bears have shown improvement since they played here taking the Giants into camp as well as Minneapolis. The ever-young Paddy Driscoll is back in the lineup again as is Trafton, that great giant center who roves all over the backfield on the defense and plugs up any hole that the Packers try to make in his forward wall. Driscoll and Trafton won't be the only Bear stars, however, if the showing made by the Chicagoans here is any criterion. There is Sturtridge, who was responsible for the Bays not winning that last game when he ran through the entire Packer team for a touchdown after catching a punt to say nothing about McMillan and Senn...PACKERS SHOW IMPROVEMENT: The Packers have shown a lot of improvement, however, since that last game here, and if comparative scores have any bearing on the game, they should come through with a win. The Bears just managed to win over the Cardinals when the two teams clashed, while the Packers took the Cardinals into camp by a 20 to 0 score and outplayed them throughout the contest. The Packers squad is in the best condition of the year and have put in the hardest week of training they ever went through in preparation for the game. Every man on the team, with the probable exception of Lollar and Cahoon, are in condition to play. These two men are still suffering somewhat from injuries although Lollar's hurt is practically healed and he may see some action. Capt. Lambeau has not announced his starting lineup as he intends to wait until just before the game to do so. Every man on the squad probably will see action, however, before the game is over...START AT 2:15: The contest which will start at 2:15 at Cubs park probably will be played before the largest crowd of the year, as reports from Chicago state that the advance ticket sale has been the largest ever experienced. At least 1,000 Wisconsin fans will see the game, as both the Milwaukee and Northwestern Roads are running excursions to Chicago, and about the same number or more will witness the game here at the Columbus club as it is replayed on the gridgraph.

PACKER, BEAR GAME TO BE SHOWN HERE ON GRIDGRAPH

OCT 20 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Eddie Kotal carrying the ball for the long gains through the broken field - O'Boyle hitting off guard for five yards - Lewellen punting 70 yards - Perry breaking through to stop the Bears without gain - all of these details of the Packer and Bear game at Chicago should they transpire will be shown to Green Bay fans who remain home tomorrow on The Press-Gazette gridgraph at the Columbus club. The kickoff, then every play by play of the game, will be re-enacted on the giant board while the fans sit in comfort in the spacious auditorium of the Columbus club tomorrow. It will be flashed to them direct from Wrigley field to the auditorium. A direct Western Union wire will give

COLORFUL PACKERS INVADE BEARS' GRIDIRON TODAY

OCT 21 (Chicago) - Green Bay's Packers are coming to town. The professional football team of the Wisconsin city, the most colorful squad in the National league, deploys at Wrigley field this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock to engage Chicago's Bears. The Packers do not come alone. One thousand rooters, the famous Lumberjack band, will be here to encourage Eddie Kotal, Verne Lewellen, Curly Lambeau and Red Dunn in the assault on the Bear eleven. More than any other game on the Chicago schedule this contest has the trappings of the collegiate. The Packers are a city's institution. There is no owner, unless the liberal supporters of athletics in Green Bay can be termed owners. Although the club always shows a profit each season, the shareholders declare no dividend, but use the money in obtaining players and increasing salaries...PLAYED 12-12 TIE: Fans who have seen the long series of gridiron engagements between the two clubs know these facts. There is no team the Bays would rather defeat than the Bears, and there is no team more feared by the Bears than these Big Bay Blues. Three weeks ago, the game in Green Bay ended in 12 to 12 tie. It was worthy of a place in the list of fiercely fought battles. At the half Chicago led, 12 to 0, only to have Eddie Kotal to an accompaniment of Red Dunn's passes, run wild to even the count. Sharing first place in the league standing with Detroit, the Bears can, by triumphing this afternoon, have undisputed possession if Benny Friedman fails in the game with the New York Giants at Detroit. And should both Detroit and the Bears lose, Frankford, Providence and the Giants will close in to make the race distinctly every one's affair. Although the Packers have a community of 40,000 as self-appointed coaches, and the women of the city have become so interested in gridiron strategy that they purchased blankets for the team. Curly Lambeau, coach-in-chief, has a formidable aggregation...ENDS ARE ALL-AMERICANS: Two all-Americans play end for the Packers. LaVerne Dilweg of Marquette and Tom Nash, University of Georgia, are the lads. Nash graduated from Georgia last June. Both are extremely fast, cover kicks excellently and excel on the defense. But their greatest value is as receivers of Red Dunn's passes. Dunn rates next to Friedman in the art of tossing a football. With a pair of ends, not to mention Lewellen in the backfield, to get under them, the air threat which is the Packers is easily explained. With the exception of Walquist, who was severely cut above the eye in the game with New York last Sunday, the Bears are ready for the Packers. And if the team plays as it did in defeating the Giants there will be excitement for all and then some.
